

APSC Mains Q 4038: A recently revealed report shows a significant and alarming rise in the number of mental health patients in Tinsukia district of Assam. As per official data, there has been a 151% increase in reported mental health cases between 2021 and March 2025.

You must Purchase the required course for access

Ethics Case Study

Password: