

APSC Mains Q 4040: The recent gas well blowout at ONGC's RDS 147A site in Assam highlights the inherent risks associated with hydrocarbon exploration and extraction. Critically examine the challenges of industrial safety and disaster management in the oil and gas sector in India. Discuss the role of inter-agency coordination and community resilience in addressing such emergencies. GS 3

Password: