

APSC Mains Q 4239: In the age of social media virality, where an individual's post can rapidly influence public perception and damage reputations without due context or consent, how should one ethically balance freedom of expression with responsibility and accountability?

You must Purchase the required course for access

Discuss with reference to digital ethics, reputational harm, and professional integrity. GS 4

Password: