

APSC Mains Q 4275: In the age of social media, the line between personal expression and public accountability is increasingly blurred. Critically analyse the ethical responsibilities of individuals and public officials in their use of social media platforms, especially in contexts

You must Purchase the required course for access where misinformation, anonymity, and digital populism shape public discourse. GS 4

Password: