

APSC Mains Q 4315: In light of Assam's recent reform replacing elective subjects in its civil services examination with a compulsory paper on the state's history, culture, geography, governance, and economy, critically evaluate the balance between fostering local

You must Purchase the required course for access administrative competence and maintaining a broad-based, meritocratic selection system. How can such a reform address

Password: inequalities while avoiding the risks of parochialism in governance? GS