

APSC Mains Q 4330: Technological disruption in education, such as AI-driven personalised learning tools, is often framed as a threat to traditional institutions like private tuition. From an ethical standpoint, discuss how innovation can be balanced with fairness, professional dignity, and the preservation of human mentorship in the learning process. GS 4

Password: