

APSC Mains Q 4423: Moral relativism argues that ethical standards are culturally bound and context-dependent, while moral universalism insists on objective principles that apply across societies. Discuss the relevance and challenges of reconciling these two perspectives in

You must Purchase the required course for access public administration. GS 4

Password: