

APSC Mains Q 4456: India's voting pattern at the United Nations has shifted in recent years, with a declining share of 'yes' votes and a rising proportion of abstentions. Critically examine the reasons behind this shift, and analyse how it reflects India's strategy to maintain an independent and flexible foreign policy in a polarised global order. GS

2

Password: