

APSC Prelims 2026: Probable Topics: Samrat Choudhury: Journalist and Author from Northeast

Samrat Choudhury, also known as Samrat X, hails from Shillong, Meghalaya. He is a prominent journalist and writer with deep engagement in Northeast Indian themes.

Journalistic Career:

He has held editorial positions at major broadsheet newspapers across India, including in Delhi, Mumbai, and Bengaluru. His journalistic work often reflects insights into the sociopolitical landscape of the Northeast.

Notable Works:

- The Braided River (2023):

A travelogue that traces the journey of the Brahmaputra River, blending personal experience with political and cultural commentary. It provides a unique lens into the identity and complexities of the Northeast.

- Insider Outsider (2019) (Co-edited with Preeti Gill):

An acclaimed anthology exploring the identity divide in India's Northeast. It features essays and narratives highlighting themes of exclusion, migration, and ethnic conflict.

- The Urban Jungle (2011):

His debut novel, published by Penguin, depicts urban chaos and moral ambiguity. It was nominated for the Man Asian Literary Prize, marking his emergence in literary fiction.