

In news

Section:

Science

One-liners for Statement based MCQs

GMCH is set to bring proton beam therapy to Assam—making it the third state in India to offer this cutting-edge cancer treatment.

Assam will soon join Chennai and Mumbai in offering proton beam therapy, a high-precision weapon in the fight against cancer.

With a ₹500 crore machine in the works, Assam is gearing up to revolutionize cancer care through proton beam therapy.

Guwahati's GMCH is on track to become a regional healthcare powerhouse with the introduction of proton beam therapy.

The Assam government's vision to make Guwahati a medical hub takes a giant leap with the planned arrival of proton beam therapy.