

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma embarked on a trip to South Korea and Japan recently

The first Indian Prime Minister to visit South Korea was P. V. Narasimha Rao in 1993, aiming to enhance economic and diplomatic ties between the two countries.

The first Indian Prime Minister to visit Japan was Jawaharlal Nehru in 1957, during which he aimed to strengthen bilateral relations and seek Japan's support for India's economic development.

Regarding Chief Ministers:

The first Indian Chief Minister to visit South Korea: Chandrababu Naidu

The first Indian Chief Minister to visit Japan : Jyoti Basu, the former CM of West Bengal, who visited in the 1990s to attract investments and enhance economic cooperation.