

Assam Transfers National Highway Component to PWD (Roads)

The Assam Cabinet approved the separation of the National Highway component from the Public Works Department (Buildings and National Highways) and its transfer to PWD (Roads).

The restructuring aims to streamline administrative responsibilities and ensure better management and implementation of road infrastructure projects across the state.

APSC Relevance: Road Infrastructure, Public Administration