President Droupadi Murmu will address the Platinum jubilee celebrations of the Gauhati High Court on April 7.

The President will also launch a mobile app ‘Bhoroxa’ for the safety of the women

A commemorative stamp of the high court will be released on April five by Rijiju while the chief minister will release the Assamese version of the book “Gauhati High Court: History and Heritage”.

Sarbananda Sonowal will attend the celebrations on April six and release six books on customary laws of Rabha, Tiwa, Zeme-Naga and Bodos of Assam, Nyishis of Arunachal Pradesh and Halams of Tripura.

The Chief Justice of India will also release two apps on the online e-sewa Kendra for Assam and integrated CIS and e-Prisons applications.