

Education / Policy Reforms

The Council of Higher Secondary Education, Manipur has become the first education board in India to establish a dedicated PARAKH Cell for implementing assessment reforms under the National Education Policy 2020.

The initiative aims to align evaluation practices with competency-based, holistic and continuous assessment envisaged in NEP 2020.

APSC relevance

Relevant for GS on education reforms, NEP 2020 and innovative institutional practices in the Northeast.