Justice U U Lalit(49th Chief Justice of India) assured there will be at least one Constitution Bench functioning throughout the year in the Supreme Court.

Constitution bench:

It is the name given to the benches of the Supreme Court of India which consist of at least five judges of the court who sit to decide any case:
Involving a substantial question of law as to the interpretation” of the Constitution of India
For the purpose of hearing any reference” made by the President of India under Article 143.