

Dr Dibyajyoti Saikia Receives International Democracy Award 2026

Dr. Dibyajyoti Saikia, a human rights activist and motivational speaker from Assam, has been conferred the International Democracy Award 2026 in recognition of his contributions to social service, drug de-addiction, and environmental conservation. The award was presented by the International Human Rights Defenders Foundation (USA) at the Constitution Club of India, New Delhi.

Dr. Saikia was honoured for his 25-year campaign against superstition and drug abuse, as well as his efforts to guide vulnerable youth towards social reform and promote environmental conservation through tree plantation initiatives.

APSC Relevance: Assam Personalities; Awards.