NITI Aayog has declared Haridwar city of Uttarakhand as the best aspirational district on the basis of five parameters.

The programme was launched in January 2018 and aims to quickly and effectively transform some of the most underdeveloped districts of the country.

Parameters for Best Aspirational District: health and nutrition, education, financial inclusion and skill development, agriculture and water resources basic infrastructure