Prince William, in collaboration with the Royal Foundation’s United for Wildlife initiative, has announced a five-year insurance programme covering 10,000 temporary forest rangers across seven Indian states, including Assam. The programme is scheduled to begin in December 2026.

It will provide personal accident insurance against death or serious injuries sustained during conservation duties, offering financial protection to rangers and their families. The initiative is among Asia’s largest dedicated ranger insurance programmes.

APSC Relevance: Forest Conservation, Wildlife Protection