Arunachal Pradesh received two honours at the India Today Tourism Survey and Awards 2026, highlighting the state's growing prominence in adventure tourism and community-based hospitality.

The state won the Editor's Choice Award for Adventure Destination for Siang River rafting, a major adventure tourism attraction in Northeast India.

Additionally, Nawang Chotta Homestay received the Special Award for Tribal Homestays, recognising the role of community-led tourism in preserving local culture and generating rural livelihoods.

APSC Relevance: Tourism development, adventure tourism, community-based tourism, and Northeast India.