The Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) Civilisational Dialogue Forum, hosted by India, adopted the ‘Indraprastha Communique’ as its outcome document. The declaration emphasises the preservation and protection of cultural heritage, including measures against illicit trafficking of cultural property.

It also advocates recognising every civilisation as an equal voice, promoting mutual respect, cultural diversity and intercivilisational dialogue among SCO member states.

APSC Relevance: Cultural Diplomacy, SCO Cooperation