

Jeffrey Archer: Celebrated British Author

Jeffrey Archer, the bestselling British author, died at the age of 86. His final novel, Adam and Eve, was scheduled for publication just one day after his death. Archer was known for his gripping plots, twists and international readership.

His 1979 novel Kane and Abel remains his most celebrated work and is among the bestselling novels, with over 34 million copies sold. The novel follows the contrasting lives of two men born on opposite sides of the world.

APSC Relevance: World Literature, Contemporary Authors