A regional symposium titled “Kuranganayani and Her Significance in Manipuri Society in Assam” was organised by the Sahitya Akademi and Manipuri Sahitya Parishad Assam to highlight the historical and cultural links between Assam and Manipur.

Kuranganayani, daughter of Jai Singh of Manipur, was married to Ahom king Rajeswar Singha. She played a crucial role during the Moamoria rebellion and is remembered for eliminating rebel leader Raghab Borbarua, thereby helping restore stability in the Ahom kingdom.

APSC Relevance: Ahom history, Assam–Manipur relations and notable women in Northeast Indian history.