‘Ma-on’ Cyclone

Context: It is a tropical storm that has hit the northern Philippines, injuring at least three people and displacing thousands.

Tropical Cyclone is a rapidly rotating storm system. It is characterized by a low-pressure centre, strong winds, closed low-level atmospheric circulation and a spiral arrangement of thunderstorms producing heavy rain.