Mangal Singh Kro, a prominent personality from Assam’s Karbi community, has been selected as one of the five state recipients of the 2026 Janjatiya Gaurav Awards in recognition of his contributions to indigenous heritage and culture.

He is also known for his contribution to Karbi music as a singer, particularly through popular traditional tracks such as Barla Abotor. His recognition highlights the importance of preserving and promoting the musical traditions of indigenous communities.

APSC Relevance: Karbi Cultural Heritage, Indigenous Music