

Meghalaya — Sundar Poonam Film

Meghalaya forms the backdrop of the upcoming romantic thriller Sundar Poonam, inspired by a real-life 2025 honeymoon murder case involving an Indore-based businessman. The film reflects the growing cinematic attention on Northeast India.

Starring Sanya Malhotra and Aditya Rawal, and directed by Pulkit, the project is part of the Prime Video 2026 slate and has begun production.

APSC Relevance: Important for contemporary cinema, Northeast representation and current affairs.