

Assam Cabinet on Sunday, October 27, approved a financial sanction of ₹150 crore for improving infrastructure of police stations under Mission for Overall Improvement of Thana for Responsive Image (MOITRI). This initiative aims to enhance the overall police infrastructure across the state.

Under MOITRI, the development includes improving physical infrastructure, internet connectivity, and tools for cyber-crime detection at each police station in Assam.

So far, 103 police stations have been upgraded, along with the completion of 33 pre-engineered building barracks and 46 additional projects, which include police reserves, transit camps, office buildings, and AT barracks.
