Union Home Minister Amit Shah inaugurated the 12th Battalion campus of the National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) in Itanagar, Arunachal Pradesh. The facility is envisioned as a regional disaster-response and training hub serving the Northeast and neighbouring areas.

Highlighting the region’s vulnerability to natural disasters, the inauguration emphasised the importance of specialised response infrastructure, trained personnel and improved preparedness to manage emergencies across the Northeast.

APSC Relevance: Disaster Management, Regional Preparedness