

NITI Aayog Reconstitution

The government has reconstituted NITI Aayog, appointing Ashok Kumar Lahiri as Vice Chairman, replacing Suman K Bery. The new team includes full-time members like K.V. Raju, M Srinivas and Abhay Karandikar.

The reconstitution reflects a shift in policy direction and expertise, strengthening the institution's role in economic planning, innovation and governance. It aims to enhance evidence-based policymaking and support India's development goals.

APSC Relevance: Polity, economic planning and institutional reforms.
