

Operation Kaveri was a rescue operation launched by the central government to evacuate Indian citizens who were stranded in Sudan. It was launched on April 24, 2023 in response to the crisis in Sudan. The operation aims to bring back Indian citizens who are stuck in the war-torn country.

(These operations are a recurring topic in CCE)