Pabitra Rabha, a noted theatre personality from Assam, has been selected as one of the five distinguished recipients from the state for the 2026 Janjatiya Gaurav Awards. His recognition highlights the contribution of indigenous artists to the preservation and promotion of tribal cultural traditions.

Through his association with theatre and cultural expression, he represents the role of performing arts in safeguarding indigenous identity, traditional knowledge and community heritage.

APSC Relevance: Tribal Performing Arts, Indigenous Cultural Heritage