

Q 3928: Assam's recent initiative to allocate land to juridical non-individual entities and government infrastructure projects marks a significant step towards grassroots institutional development.

Critically examine the importance of such land allotment reforms in

You must Purchase the required course for access promoting inclusive governance and public infrastructure in underserved regions.(250 words) GS 5

Password: