Diversification of Agriculture: Assam can reduce its dependence on traditional farming by expanding allied activities such as horticulture, sericulture and pisciculture. These sectors can improve land productivity, generate alternative livelihoods and strengthen rural incomes.

Expansion of MSMEs: Promoting Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) can create large-scale employment due to their labour-intensive nature and relatively low capital requirements. Their expansion can support economic diversification and absorb the state’s growing workforce.

APSC Relevance: Employment Generation, Economic Diversification