- Air India Express has launched ‘Voices of the Land: Tales of Northeast’, a six-part documentary series showcasing the heritage, oral traditions, and cultural practices of indigenous communities across Northeast India.
- Hosted by Adarsh Gourav, the series features the Angami, Biate, Mising, Khasi, and Sherdukpen communities through their music, folklore, crafts, and daily life.
- The documentary is part of the airline’s ‘Tales of India’ initiative, which promotes India’s cultural heritage through storytelling, literature, art, and festivals.

APSC Relevance: Indigenous Culture; Northeast India