World Environment Day 2026 is observed with the theme “Inspired by Nature. For Climate. For Our Future.”

The theme emphasizes nature-based solutions to address climate change, biodiversity loss and environmental degradation. It highlights the importance of protecting ecosystems, restoring natural habitats and promoting sustainable practices to secure a climate-resilient future for present and future generations.

APSC Relevance: Environment conservation, climate change and sustainable development.